COLIN DAGBA EXTENDS HIS CONTRACT WITH PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN

Paris Saint-Germain is pleased to announce the extension of Colin Dagba's professional contract for an additional season. The full back has signed with the capital club until 30 June 2024.

The 21-year-old Béthune-born defender joined the Club in 2016 from Boulogne-sur-Mer. Colin started off with the U19s (2016-2017), then the PSG reserve team in France's National 2 division, going on to make 16 appearances. (2017-2018).

After signing his first professional contract on 3 July 2017, Colin Dagba gradually carved out a place for himself in Thomas Tuchel's squad, with the German coach giving him his first team debut in the Trophée des Champions victory over AS Monaco on 4 August 2018. Since then, the young defender has played 26 matches with the Rouge & Bleu in all competitions, winning the 2019 Ligue 1 title and another Trophée des Champions at the start of the 2019-2020 season.

At national level Colin made his debut for France U21s on 3 June 2019, and has now made 6 appearances for "Les Bleuets".

The Club wishes Colin a successful professional career with the Rouge & Bleu.
