PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN HANDBALL vs HC ZAGREB

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 21st, 2023 – 18:45 – STADE PIERRE-DE-COUBERTIN – PARIS

EHF CHAMPIONS LEAGUE – WEEK 2 – BROADCAST: EUROSPO

A EUROPEAN REGULAR

HC Zagreb are regulars in the Champions League. This is the Croatian club's 30th season in Europe's premier club competition. They are the team with the most appearances in the competition, just ahead of Veszprém (29), Celje (28), FC Barcelona (27) and THW Kiel (26). They have also won the Champions League twice, in 1992 and 1993.

ONGOING SERIES

As well as being the team with the most appearances in the EHF CL, the team from the Croatian capital is also on the second longest consecutive run in the competition. HC Zagreb will be playing in their 21st season in a row in the Champions League.

THE GROUP STAGE WALL

Despite these two records, the Croatian team has been struggling to get out of the group stage for several years now. In fact, HC Zagreb have only made it out of the group stage twice in the last five seasons. In 2022-2023, they were eliminated after losing to Porto on the penultimate matchday.

COLD-BLOODED PARIS

Paris Saint-Germain, making their first appearance in the competition, showed great composure in the dying moments of their match in Szeged. With the Hungarians trailing by just one goal in the final minute, Spanish winger David Balaguer scored his second of the evening to seal victory for his side with thirty seconds remaining (31-29). A valuable first away win.

A TOUGH START

The Croatian team, national champions for the 31st season in a row, got off to a difficult start at home in the Champions League last week. Timur Dibirov's team-mates (4 goals) were beaten 23-30 by THW Kiel, with less than 60% of their shots on target.

PARIS A CLEAR ADVANTAGE

In the head-to-head meetings between the two teams, Paris has a clear advantage. In twelve matches, the Parisians have won ten times, conceding just one defeat and one draw.

SOLID PERFORMANCE IN 2022

The two teams meet again in the group stage, as they did last season. In the first leg, already at Coubertin, Raul Gonzalez's men were serious and won 40-31. The match was already done at the break, with les Rouge et Bleu holding an eight-goal advantage (22-14). Parisian line player Kamil Syprzak, scorer of 9 goals, again led his side well.

NIKO AND KAMIL HONOURED

Two Paris players feature in the AJPH's 7 of the week. Nikola Karabatic is back following his solid performance at Ivry (6 goals at 86% and 5 assists). He is joined by his team-mate in the pivot position, Kamil Syprzak, who scored 10 goals at 91% last Sunday.

GROUP

Yoann Gibelin (recovery) and Sadou Ntanzi (coach decision) are absents. Elohim Prandi is back in the roster after missing the last two games.

COACH

Raul GONZALEZ
HEAD COACH

Raul Gonzalez was born in 1970, in Spain in the city of Valladolid. He spent his entire professional career at BM Valladolid as center-back during 18 seasons (1987 to 2005). In 1996, at the Olympic Games in Atlanta, he won the bronze medal against France. He won two silver medals at the European Championships in 1996 and 1998.

He reconverted very quickly and became assistant coach of BM Ciudad Real in 2005. In 2014, he signs as head coach of RK Vardar Skopje, a position he held until 2018. With this club, he won three championships, four Macedonian cups and two SEHA leagues. Raul Gonzalez made a splash in 2017 by winning the Champions League against Paris. In 2018, he started a new challenge and became the coach of Paris-Saint-Germain where he met Luc Abalo, a player with whom he worked from 2008 to 2012 at BM Ciudad Real.

Raul Gonzalez arrived in the city of light with a reputation as a talented and experienced coach. In his first year with Paris Saint-Germain, he won the Lidl Starligue three games before the end of the championship, as well as the Coupe de la Ligue. Despite a defeat in the quarterfinals of the Champions League, the club of the French capital achieved a record season: 26 points combined in group stage, a new record since the introduction of the new competition system.

During the 2020-2021 season, the Parisian coach won the Coupe de France before leading his team to a seventh consecutive Lidl Starligue title, a record in the history of the competition. The team finished on the third step of the podium at the Final 4 of the EHF Champions League.

STADE PIERRE-DE-COUBERTIN

The Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin was inaugurated in 1937 as part of the World Exhibition. Following the damage caused by the Second World War, it was rebuilt in 1946. The major renovation of this historic stadium is from 1990.

Paris Saint-Germain Handball is the resident club. The Club did some work to personalize the stadium, including the creation of a weight room, a medical room or the installation of Rouge et Bleu colored seats, similar to the Parc des Princes.

Some additional work was carried out during the Summer 2016 to allow Paris Saint-Germain Handball to host Champions League matches. Since the 2016-2017 season, all home games are held at Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin. During handball matches, the capacity is 3,500 spectators.

Paris Saint-Germain realized a 46-game winning streak in Lidl Starligue in Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin from the 08/06/2017 to the 25/04/2021) and also broke a record for a French team with 56 straight games without a loss in Coubertin, all competitions included (55 wins and 1 draw against Kiel on March 2018) between June 8th 2017 and December 1st 2019. And in Champions League, the team stayed unbeaten at home during more than 5 years, between November 2014 and December 2019. Paris lost only three times since games are played in Coubertin (56 games, 50 wins, 3 draws and 3 losses).

Beyond gamedays, the Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin is where daily practices of the professional team and club youth system take place.

2012/2013: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball, coached by the World Champion Philippe Gardent, won the French championship for the first time of its history. Some international stars were part of the team like Luc Abalo, Samuel Honrubia, Mikkel Hansen or Didier Dinart, which ended his career on this trophy.

2013/2014: With Daniel Narcisse, who joined the club at the beginning of the season, Paris reached the quarter-finals of the Champions League for the first time and won against Chambéry in the final of the Coupe de France.

2014/2015: The Parisians fought until the last game with Montpellier to win their second French championship title. Stronger with the arrival of Thierry Omeyer, the Paris Saint-Germain Handball realized an historic triple crown after winning the Trophée des Champions and the Coupe de France.

2015/2016: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball, which host a new coach, Zvonimir Serdarušić, and the Karabatic brothers at the summer 2015, won one more time the Trophée des Champions and in Lidl Starligue. The team participated for the first time to the Final Four of the Champions League, proving the rise in power of the club at the European level.

2016/2017: Another triple crown with a third Trophée des Champions, a third consecutive Lidl Starligue and a first win in Coupe de la Ligue. The Ligue des Champions ended by a crucial loss at the last second of the game in Final, against Skopje.

2017/2018: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball won for the first time Lidl Starligue - Coupe de France - Coupe de la Ligue. The Lidl Starligue title has been reached on the last week, which was also Daniel Narcisse last game, a true legend of French handball. In Champions league, Paris confirmed its power and qualified for Final4, where they ended at the third place.

2018/2019: Paris became national champion three games before the end of the Lidl Starligue. Eliminated in quarterfinals of Coupe de France against Montpellier, the Paris Saint-Germain Handball won one week after in Coupe de la Ligue for the third consecutive time. After breaking the record of points in Champions' League group phase, the Rouge & Bleu lost in quarterfinals against Kielce despite an incredible performance at the second leg in Coubertin. The end of season is marked by the retirement of the one of the best French handball player and best goalkeeper ever, Thierry Omeyer.

2019/2020: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball won the Trophée des Champions against Montpellier. During the match, Vincent Gérard, new Parisian player and former player of the Montpellier Handball, is named MVP with 17 stops. Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Rouge & Bleu are crowned champions of Lidl Starligue in April after 18 matches.

2020/2021: Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the LNH decides to cancel the Champions Trophy and the League Cup. The Rouge & Bleu achieved a historic start to the season by winning the first 22 days of Lidl Starligue. With 27 wins in 29 games, Paris won the French champion, a few weeks after winning the fifth Coupe de France in its history against Montpellier (26-30).

2021/2022: Paris Saint-Germain realised the perfect season in Liqui Moly Starligue with 30 wins in 30 games. A performance never made in the five major team sports in France. Raul Gonzalez's men won, in June 2022, the third French cup of the club.

2022/2023: Raul Gonzalez players' won their tenth French championship (9 in a row) with 26 wins in 29 games. Luc Steins is crowned MVP for the third year in a row.
