

AUSTRALIA TOUR

PSG MEETS ITS FANS

From 25 August to 1 September, the Paris Saint-Germain women's team will be in Australia to compete in the Perth International Cup. This is an opportunity for the Parisiennes to meet its Australian fans through a range of activities, including a Fan Zone in Perth.

PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN MATCHES

As part of the Perth International Cup, our Parisian women will play their first match on Thursday 29 August against West Ham United at 6pm (local time) at HBF Park. The Rouge et Bleu have a second match at HBF Park on Sunday 1 September, against Manchester City or Leicester City (depending on the results of the first match).

MANY ACTIVITIES ON SITE

This tour will be an opportunity for the team to share some unique moments that the players don't usually experience. Numerous activities are planned to enable our Parisian players to discover Australia. They'll have the opportunity to visit a zoo, meet kangaroos and koalas, experience an Australian football match and lots more!

THE WHOLE GROUP

Just back from the Olympic Games, the French internationals and our gold medallist, Korbin Albert, will be part of the delegation. In total, 22 players will be part of this Australian tour, including 10 players from the training centre.

NEW ARRIVALS IN RED AND BLUE

New people have joined the Paris Saint-Germain women's team for the 2024-2025 season. Four new players have joined the team: Mary Earps, Griedge Mbock, Romée Leuchter and Joe Echechini. Two Parisians have extended their contract with the Club: Elisa De Almeida, Eva Gaetino and Jackie Groenen. Finally, Tara Elimbi Gilbert has signed her first professional contract, and a new coaching staff arrived over under new head coach Fabrice Abriel.

THE TEAM

GOALKEEPERS
EARPS	KIEDRZYNEK	TOUSSAINT
DEFENDERS
DE ALMEIDA MBOCK DUDEK	KARCHAOU SAMOURA ELIMBI GILBERT	GAETINO LE GUILLY J. LE GUILLY E.
MIDFIELDERS
ALBERT	FAZER LUSHIMBA BILOMBI	GEYORO EBAYLIN
STRIKERS
TRAORE	KATOTO ECHEGINI	LEUCHTER MOKTHAR JAMAI

TRAILER OF AUSTRALIA TOUR

KEY DATES:

- Arrival - Sunday august 25
- First game: Thursday 29 august 6pm (local time): Match PSG vs West Ham United (HBF Park – Perth)
- Second game: Sunday september 1: PSG vs Manchester City or Leicester City - depending on the result of the 1st match (HBF Park – Perth)
- Back in Paris: Monday September 2

Official broadcaster : Optus Sport.

PLAYERS UNDER PROFESSIONAL CONTRACT

1 Katarzyna KIEDRZYNEK

GOALKEEPER • 33 YO

Katarzyna Kiedrzynek made her football debut with Polish club Motor Lublin in 2004. After three seasons, the goalkeeper played for Gornik Lezna from 2007 to 2013. "Kasia" then moved to Paris Saint-Germain. In 7 seasons with the Rouge et Bleu, the Pole took part in over 120 matches, two Champions League finals and won a French Cup. She then signed for VfL Wolfsburg (GER) in 2020.

27 Mary EARPS

GOALKEEPER • 31 YO

Mary Earps began her professional career with Doncaster Rovers before moving on to a number of big-name clubs in England, including Birmingham City, Bristol City and Reading FC. In 2018, she left her homeland for Germany, where she played for VfL Wolfsburg and won the Women's Bundesliga. After a season in Germany, the goalkeeper signed for Manchester United. In five seasons with the Red Devils, she made almost 100 appearances in all competitions and won the FA Cup in 2024, making a significant contribution to the team's success. With the England national team, the 31-year-old now has 50 caps to her name. She played a key role in the Lionesses' victory at the UEFA Women's EURO 2022. Internationally recognised for her leadership and performances, Mary Earps was voted Goalkeeper of the Year at the FIFA The Best ceremony in 2022 and 2023 and Goalkeeper of the Year at the PFA Awards in 2023.

30 Océane TOUSSAINT

GOALKEEPER • 20 YO

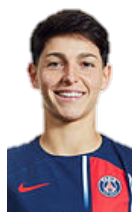

Océane Toussaint began playing football in Colombes, near Paris, before joining the Parisian club at the age of 14. In her first season with Paris Saint-Germain, the young goalkeeper won the French U19 Championship alongside a number of players who have since joined the professional ranks, including Laurina Fazer, Magnaba Folquet and Jade Le Guilly. In February 2023, the young goalkeeper was voted "Titi d'Or", a trophy awarded to the best player in the U19 section.

2 Thiniba SAMOURA

DEFENDER • 20 YO

Thiniba Samoura began playing football at the age of 11 in Thiais (Val-de-Marne), before joining the Paris Football Club academy four years later. After playing at U16 and U19 level, the Parisian made her first-team debut against Dijon FCO in November 2021. Since then, the young defender has played 9 D1 Arkema matches and 1 Coupe de France match for PFC.

5 Elisa DE ALMEIDA

DEFENDER • 26 YO

Born in Châtenay-Malabry in the Hauts-de-Seine department, Elisa took her first steps in football at Épinay, aged just 6. After a brief spell at Villebon, the young defender made her professional debut for FCF Juvisy when she was just 18. In 2019, she left her training club, now Paris FC, to join Montpellier HSC in the Hérault region of France. After joining Les Bleues at U17 level, Elisa went on to play for all the national youth teams, including winning the European U19 Championship alongside Grâce Geyoro and Marie-Antoinette Katoto in 2016. Three years later, she was called up to the senior team on several occasions. She will be taking part in the 2023 World Cup in Australia and New Zealand with the French team.

7 Sakina KARCHAOUI

DEFENDER • 28 YO

Before arriving at Paris Saint-Germain, Sakina Karchaoui already had a fine CV to her name. Born in Salon-de-Provence, she began her career in the south of France with Miramas, before joining Montpellier's youth academy at the age of 13, where she signed her first professional contract 4 years later. After 8 seasons in the first team at the Hérault club, the left-back signed for Olympique Lyonnais, where she stayed for a year. In 2021, the French international has decided to bring her experience of the French league and her knowledge of the highest level to the ranks of Parisiennes, who have just been crowned French champions. Alongside five Parisian players, she will be taking part in the 2023 Women's World Cup.

4 Paulina DUDEK

DEFENDER • 27 YO

A native of the capital, the central defender first donned her boots in 2006, playing for SC Buttes-Chaumont in Paris's 19th arrondissement. Two years later, at the age of 13, Aïssatou joined GPSO 92 Issy. In 2010, the neo-Parisian joined FCF Juvisy Essonne (now Paris FC), where she signed her first professional contract. Eight seasons later, Aïssatou Tounkara left France to play for Atlético de Madrid. With the Colchoneras, she won a Spanish championship in 2019 and a national Supercup in 2020. In the summer of 2022, the defender signed for Manchester United in England.

29 Griedge MBOCK

DEFENDER • 29 YO

Griedge Mbock a débuté sa carrière professionnelle à Saint-Brieuc en 2010, avant qu'elle ne rejoigne l'En Avant Guingamp en 2011. Ses performances lui ont permis d'être nommée jeune joueuse de l'année en 2013 et 2014. À l'été 2015, elle rejoint l'Olympique lyonnais, jouant 190 matchs toutes compétitions confondues et inscrivant 37 buts en sept saisons. Avec l'OL, Griedge Mbock a remporté six Ligues des champions féminines, sept titres de championne de France, quatre Coupes de France et trois Trophées des champions. Après avoir remporté la Coupe du monde des moins de 17 ans (2012) et l'Euro des moins de 19 ans (2013), la défenseuse brestoise a fait ses débuts en équipe nationale senior en 2013, à l'âge de 18 ans.

16 Jade LE GUILLY

DEFENDER • 22 YO

A product of the Parisian youth system, Jade Le Guilly was born in Nogent-sur-Marne (Val-de-Marne) and began playing football at the age of 8 with AS Vexin Marines (Val-d'Oise). And she was only 12 when she joined the capital club! First on the pitches of the Paris Saint-Germain Association, then with the U19 section, Jade worked her way up through the ranks of the Parisian team, winning the French U19 championship in 2019 and wearing the captain's armband.

20 Tara ELIMBI

DEFENDER • 19 YO

Tara Elimbi was born in Enghien-les-Bains in the Val d'Oise in 2005. She began playing football at the age of 8 at the Epinay-sur-Seine football academy, before joining the Paris Saint-Germain training centre in 2020. She is a member of the French Under-19 team, with whom she has 12 caps and one goal to her name. She signed her first professional contract in July 2024.

26 Anaïs EBAYLIN

MIDFIELDER • 16 YO

Anaïs Ebaylin began playing football at the age of 9 with AS Pierrefitte (Seine-Saint-Denis), before joining AAS Sarcelles Club (Val d'Oise) four years later. She joined the Paris Saint-Germain youth academy in 2022. After playing for the U16 and U19 teams, the Parisian made her first-team debut a few weeks ago in the French Cup match against CPB Bréguigny Football FCO (4-0), aged just 16.

8 Grace GEYORO

MIDFIELDER • 27 YO

Born in Kolwezi in the Democratic Republic of Congo, young Grace began kicking a ball around with her older brother. Having arrived at the Club in 2012 at the age of 15, Grace Geyoro completed her entire training at Paris Saint-Germain. The Orléans native played her first-team minutes against Issy-les-Moulineaux on 12 October 2014, and signed her first professional contract a year later. Appointed captain this season, the midfielder has now made 171 appearances and scored 22 goals for the Rouge et Bleu, winning a Challenge National U19 (2016), two Coupe de France (2018, 2022) and the French D1 title in the 2020-2021 season. She will be taking part in the 2023 World Cup with Les Bleues.

14 Jackie GROENEN

MIDFIELDER • 29 YO

Practising judo alongside football in her native country, Jackie Groenen began her professional career in Germany in 2011 with SG Essen-Schönebeck, before joining MSV Duisburg a few months later. In 2014, the Dutchwoman signed for Chelsea FC in England for one season. She returned to Germany in May 2015, signing for FFC Frankfurt. She then played for Manchester United for three seasons, making 57 appearances. In 2023, she will take part in the World Cup in Australia and New Zealand, accompanied by Lieke Martens.

95 Laurina FAZER

MIDFIELDER • 20 YO

Laurina Fazer signed her first professional contract with her hometown club, Les Rouge et Bleu, aged just 16. The U17 international has regularly displayed her talent and rigour with the Rouge et Bleu U19s, with whom the native of Argenteuil (Val-d'Oise) won the French Championship for the category in 2019, following a 5-1 final victory over Olympique Lyonnais. After a more than convincing 2021-2022 season with the professional squad, the Parisian starlet was named best D1 Arkema prospect at the UNFP Trophies. Laura Fazer was called up by coach Hervé Renard to take part in the 2023 Women's World Cup.

10 Korbin ALBERT

MIDFIELDER • 20 YO

Born in Grayslake in the United States, Korbin Albert began playing football in her homeland at an early age. She joined Eclipse Select Soccer Club in Chicago at the age of 14, before going on to play for the University of Notre Dame in South Bend from 2021. She reached the quarter-finals of the championship before being named one of the three finalists for the Mac Hermann Trophy at the end of 2022, awarded to the best female university players.

9 Marie-Antoinette KATOTO

STRIKER • 25 YO

Born in Colombes, 'MAK' joined the capital club at just 12 years of age. A little jewel that the City of Light has been lucky enough to nurture for more than 10 years, the striker is already an established player in the world game's elite. Three times top scorer in the league and voted best player by her peers, as she was last season, this shy youngster cultivates paradoxes. An explosive sprinter, a disconcerting dribbler and a silky finisher, Marie-Antoinette Katoto is blessed with a power that has hurt many defences since the start of her career. In September 2023, the number 9 was back on the pitch after a fourteen-month absence following a cruciate ligament rupture.

80 Manssita TRAORE

STRIKER • 20 YO

in 2020. Born in Noisy-le-Grand in Seine-Saint-Denis, Manssita Traoré began playing football in the Paris region with SFC Neuilly-sur-Marne at the age of 9. Four years later, she joined her hometown club before moving to Paris Saint-Germain's training centre in 2019. Winner of the "Titi d'Or" at the end of the 2021-2022 season, which rewards the most promising young talents at the Parisian club, Nanssita Traoré made her first appearance in the professional squad on 13 June 2022 against Stade de Reims. A few months later, she played her first UEFA Women's Champions League match at the Stade Jean-Bouin against Chelsea FC.

17 Romée LEUCHTER

STRIKER • 23 YO

Born in Heerlen (Netherlands), Romée Leuchter began her football career at CTO Zuid. She then signed for PSV Eindhoven, where the striker played her first professional match in 2019 and won her first Dutch Cup in 2021. The Dutch international signed for Ajax Amsterdam in 2021. Romée Leuchter has left an indelible mark on Ajax, becoming the club's all-time top scorer at just 23, with 86 goals in 89 games. In three seasons, she also provided 21 assists and won the Dutch league championship (2023) as well as two Dutch Cups (2022, 2024). The Parisienne made her national team debut in February 2022, during the Tournoi de France, in a 1-1 draw with Brazil. Since then, she has played 14 matches and scored 2 goals.

6 Joe ECHEGINI

STRIKER • 23 YO

in 2020. Born in Nijmegen in the Netherlands, Jennifer Onyi Echegini, also known as 'Joe', began her football career in England, where she grew up playing for Millwall Lionesses FC and then Arsenal. In 2019, the striker flew to the United States, joining the University of Mississippi before moving to Florida State in 2022. In her final season in the American university league, the 23-year-old led her team to the title of NCAA Champions 2023. Her individual performances earned her numerous awards: best forward and best player in the ACC (Atlantic Coast Conference) and winner of the Hermann Trophy, the most prestigious award in American university football. She kicked off 2024 by signing for Juventus. In just six months, the Nigerian scored 10 goals and provided one assist in 16 games across all competitions. Half a season was enough for her to be named in the league's Team of the Year and voted best newcomer of the season. With the Super Falcons, the striker has 10 caps and 1 goal to her name. She played in the 2023 Women's World Cup in Australia, losing out to England on penalties in the Round of 16.

FOLLOW ALL THE LATEST NEWS FROM THE WOMEN'S TEAM ON SOCIAL NETWORKS

PSG FEMININES

615 000 FANS
ON 19 AUGUST 2024

@PSG_FEMININES

152 732 FOL.
ON 19 AUGUST 2024

@PSG_FEMININES

1,4 MILLION FOL.
ON 19 AUGUST 2024

PSG TV

8 2100 000 FOL.
ON 19 AUGUST 2024

FABRICE ABRIEL

HEAD COACH

A former player who came through the Paris Saint-Germain youth academy, Fabrice Abriel made his senior debut with the Club and won the Intertoto Cup in the Rouge-et-Bleu shirt in 2001.

After his professional football career, he turned to a coaching career, starting with FC Gobelins, and gaining experience with the French military team and at the Amiens SC youth academy. In 2020, he became assistant coach at FC Fleury 91 before becoming head coach at the end of the season.

Under his leadership, the club finished fourth in D1 Arkema in 2022 and 2023, and fifth last season. He qualified the club systematically for the Women's Coupe de France semi-finals, and they were beaten in the final last May by Paris Saint-Germain.

Born on July 6th 1979 (45 years old)

Nationality : France

CAREER AS HEAD COACH

2016-2017	FC Gobelins
2017-2018	French military team
2018-2019	Amiens SC training centre
2020-2021	FC Fleury (Assistant coach)
2021-2024	FC Fleury (Head coach)

RECORDS

---

OF THE WOMENS TEAM

9 TITLES

1

D1 FRENCH CHAMPIONSHIP D1
2021

1

D2 FRENCH CHAMPIONSHIP 2001

4

FRENCH CUPS
2010, 2018, 2022, 2024

3

U19 FRENCH CHAMPIONSHIPS
2016, 2017, 2019

D1 ARKEMA 2021
COUPE DE FRANCE 2010 • 2018 • 2022 • 2024
CHAMPIONNAT DE FRANCE D2 2001