PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN HANDBALL vs HC EUROFARM PELISTER

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11th 2024 - 20:45 - STADE PIERRE-DE-COUBERTIN - PARIS

EHF CHAMPIONS LEAGUE -WEEK 1 - BROADCAST : EUROSPORT

EUROPEAN NIGHT

Tonight, the Rouge & Bleu begin their twelfth consecutive season at the top level of European competition, the EHF Champions League. Over the past eleven campaigns, the capital's players have at least reached the quarter-finals.

LAST HEAD-TO-HEADS

Last season, the two-legged clash against the Macedonian club was largely in favor of Raul Gonzalez's men. In the first leg at home, they won 31-26, with 7 goals from Syprzak. During the away game in Bitola, the Polish pivot once again helped Paris secure victory (25-31).

TOP SCORER

Paris Saint-Germain Handball boasts the top scorer of the 2023-2024 season in European competition, Kamil Syprzak. The Pole scored 112 in 17 continental matches during the last campaign.

THE GREAT 8

Elohim Prandi showed no mercy to his former club last Saturday at Coubertin. During Paris's victory against USAM Nîmes Gard, number 71 scored 8 goals (67%). On August 30th, "Elo" had been named the best player of the league of the past season.

POWER 10

While Elohim Prandi focused on scoring goals in the match against the Gardois club, Andreas Palicka made sure his teammates conceded as few as possible: 10 saves made by the Swedish goalkeeper.

YOUTH ON THE MOVE

Two young players from the youth system will join the professionals on the bench tonight. Noa Narcisse (left back) and Stanis Soullier (goalkeeper), both of whom traveled to Tokyo for the 2024 Japan Tour, are listed on the match sheet to face the Macedonian team.

THREE PLAYERS OUT

Jacob Holm (viral syndrome), David Balaguer (lower limb muscle injury), and Jannick Green (rib injury) are unavailable.

STADE PIERRE-DE-COUBERTIN

The Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin was inaugurated in 1937 as part of the World Exhibition. Following the damage caused by the Second World War, it was rebuilt in 1946. The major renovation of this historic stadium is from 1990.

Paris Saint-Germain Handball is the resident club. The Club did some work to personalize the stadium, including the creation of a weight room, a medical room or the installation of Rouge et Bleu colored seats, similar to the Parc des Princes.

Some additional work was carried out during the Summer 2016 to allow Paris Saint-Germain Handball to host Champions League matches. Since the 2016-2017 season, all home games are held at Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin. During handball matches, the capacity is 3,500 spectators.

Paris Saint-Germain realized a 46-game winning streak in Lidl Starligue in Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin from the 08/06/2017 to the 25/04/2021 and also broke a record for a French team with 56 straight games without a loss in Coubertin, all competitions included (55 wins and 1 draw against Kiel on March 2018) between June 8th 2017 and December 1st 2019. And in Champions League, the team stayed unbeaten at home during more than 5 years, between November 2014 and December 2019. Paris lost only four times since games are played in Coubertin (60 games, 52 wins, 4 draws and 4 losses).

Beyond gamedays, the Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin is where daily practices of the professional team and club youth system take place.

 Press entrance on match days

 Press entrance outside match days

2013/2014: With Daniel Narcisse, who joined the club at the beginning of the season, Paris reached the quarter-finals of the Champions League for the first time and won against Chambéry in the final of the Coupe de France.

2014/2015: The Parisians fought until the last game with Montpellier to win their second French championship title. Stronger with the arrival of Thierry Omeyer, the Paris Saint-Germain Handball realized an historic triple crown after winning the Trophée des Champions and the Coupe de France.

2015/2016: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball, which host a new coach, Zvonimir Serdarušić, and the Karabatic brothers at the summer 2015, won one more time the Trophée des Champions and in Lidl Starligue. The team participated for the first time to the Final Four of the Champions League, proving the rise in power of the club at the European level.

2016/2017: Another triple crown with a third Trophée des Champions, a third consecutive Lidl Starligue and a first win in Coupe de la Ligue. The Ligue des Champions ended by a cruel loss at the last second of the game in Final, against Skopje.

2017/2018: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball won for the first time Lidl Starligue - Coupe de France - Coupe de la Ligue. The Lidl Starligue title has been reached on the last week, which was also Daniel Narcisse last game, a true legend of French handball. In Champions league, Paris confirmed its power and qualified for Final4, where they ended at the third place.

2018/2019: Paris became national champion three games before the end of the Lidl Starligue. Eliminated in quarterfinals of Coupe de France against Montpellier, the Paris Saint-Germain Handball won one week after in Coupe de la Ligue for the third consecutive time. After breaking the record of points in Champions' League group phase, the Rouge & Bleu lost in quarterfinals against Kielce despite an incredible performance at the second leg in Coubertin. The end of season is marked by the retirement of the one of the best French handball player and best goalkeeper ever, Thierry Omeyer.

2019/2020: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball won the Trophée des Champions against Montpellier. During the match, Vincent Gérard, new Parisian player and former player of the Montpellier Handball, is named MVP with 17 stops. Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Rouge & Bleu are crowned champions of Lidl Starligue in April after 18 matches.

2020/2021: Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the LNH decides to cancel the Champions Trophy and the League Cup. The Rouge & Bleu achieved a historic start to the season by winning the first 22 days of Lidl Starligue. With 27 wins in 29 games, Paris won the French champion, a few weeks after winning the fifth Coupe de France in its history against Montpellier (26-30).

2021/2022: Paris Saint-Germain realised the perfect season in Liqui Moly Starligue with 30 wins in 30 games. A performance never made in the five major team sports in France. Raul Gonzalez's men won, in June 2022, the third French cup of the club.

2022/2023: Raul Gonzalez players' won their tenth French championship (9 in a row) with 26 wins in 29 games. Luc Steins is crowned MVP for the third year in a row.

2023/2024: Les Rouge & Bleu begin the season by winning the Champions Trophy, a few months before being crowned French champions for the eleventh time (the tenth in a row). At the end of the season, Nikola Karabatic stepped down after more than 20 years in the professional game, 9 of them in the colours of the French capital.
