PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN HANDBALL vs FC PORTO HANDBALL

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 3rd 2022 – 18:45 – STADE PIERRE-DE-COUBERTIN – PARIS

EHF CHAMPIONS LEAGUE – WEEK 6 – BROADCAST : EUROSPORT 2

A GREAT START

With the 36-29 win in Bucharest last week, the Rouge & Bleu made the best start in the competition since the 2019/2020 season. Raul Gonzalez's men have won four of their first five matches in the European competition. And with an impressive goal average of thirty-five per game.

PARIS IN ATTACK

With thirty-six goals scored in the match against Dinamo Bucharest the trend was confirmed. Paris Saint-Germain is one of the best attacks in the EHF Champions League this season. The Rouge & Bleu are third in this statistical category with an average of thirty-five goals per game and best efficiency in the top three (78.2%).

A DECISIVE RUN

In this great win in Bucharest, Paris turned the game in their advantage with six diabolical minutes in the first half. Between the eighteenth and the twenty-fourth minute, Luka Karabatic's teammates passed a 6-2 to Xavi Pascual's men. The Romanian team were relegated to a four-goal deficit (12-16) and were never able to catch up the deficit.

KAMIL IN RUNNER-UP

If Elohim Prandi shone again in the last Champions League match with nine goals, it is his teammate, the Polish line Kamil Syprzak, who marks the beginning of the European campaign. The number 21 of the Paris Saint-Germain is the 2nd scorer of the competition with thirty-five units in five games. An efficiency rate of 77.8%.

A (VERY) GOOD MEMORY...AND HISTORIC

The last trip to Coubertin was a nightmare for the Portuguese. Almost a year ago, on 18 November 2021, the Dragons were suffocated by the players from the capital. By conceding only four goals (18-4) in the first half, Paris became the second team to concede the fewest in the European competition for twenty-eight years (1993) in one half-time ! The Portuguese didn't score during more than fifteen minutes : from the 14' at 7-3 to the 29' at 18-4.

0 POINTS FOR PORTO

The Portuguese team didn't arrive in Paris with confidence. Magnus Andersson's team have lost five games (and 0 victory) since the start of the competition. Porto are also the worst attacking team of the two groups combined, with 127 goals scored and an efficiency of 55.7%.

500 FOR DAINIS ?

Dainis Kristopans is getting closer of the 500 goals mark in EHF Champions League. The Parisian right-back must score five goals tonight against Porto to reach this symbolic milestone in Europe's top competition.

WITH A NEW YOUNG

Dominik Mathé (reathletisation) and Nikola Karabatic (managed) are absent. Two players from the youth system, Gautier Loredon and Tony Mendy, will play against Porto this evening. A first time for the latter, who plays as right-back in the youth team.

Since November 2020

Luc Steins joins Paris at the end of November 2020 as a medical joker, following the injury of Nikola Karabatic. He made his professional first steps at the age of 17 with Limburg Lions, winning two Dutch Championship and Cup doubles in 2015 and 2016, before moving to Massy. Named best player of the Proligue in 2016-2017, Steins then signed for Tremblay-en-France, where he played for two seasons before moving to Toulouse in the summer of 2019. He was named MVP and best center-back in the Lidl Starligue in the 2020-2021 season. In two seasons in the French capital, he achieved a "back-to-back" by being named MVP and best center-half of the 2020-2021 and 2021-2022 French championships.

From youth system

Sadou Ntanzi joined the Paris Saint-Germain youth academy in 2017, before making his debut with the professional team in April 2019. Before starting the 2020-2021 season, the 20-year-old played 11 Lidl Star League matches and 5 Champions League matches, scoring a total of 13 goals. Named best centre-back in the 2018 European U18 Championship with 41 goals to his credit, Sadou Ntanzi signed his first professional contract in June 2020 and joined Toulouse on loan for a season. In 2021, he made his comeback in the Parisian team.

Born in Barcelona, Ferran Solé came through the ranks at BM Granollers, a club with which he finished top scorer in the 2015-2016 EHF Cup. He then moved to France and signed for Fenix Toulouse Handball. Solé played a decisive role in Spain's victory in the 2018 European championship and was voted best right-winger in the competition. He received the same distinction one year later, at the 2019 world championship. In January 2020, he triumphed again with La Roja in the Euro final in Stockholm. This season, he will share the right wing position with another Spanish, the new Parisian, David Balaguer.

Raul Gonzalez was born in 1970, in Spain in the city of Valladolid. He spent his entire professional career at BM Valladolid as center-back during 18 seasons (1987 to 2005). In 1996, at the Olympic Games in Atlanta, he won the bronze medal against France. He won two silver medals at the European Championships in 1996 and 1998.

He reconverted very quickly and became assistant coach of BM Ciudad Real in 2005. In 2014, he signs as head coach of RK Vardar Skopje, a position he held until 2018. With this club, he won three championships, four Macedonian cups and two SEHA leagues. Raul Gonzalez made a splash in 2017 by winning the Champions League against Paris. In 2018, he started a new challenge and became the coach of Paris-Saint-Germain where he met Luc Abalo, a player with whom he worked from 2008 to 2012 at BM Ciudad Real.

Raul Gonzalez arrived in the city of light with a reputation as a talented and experienced coach. In his first year with Paris Saint-Germain, he won the Lidl Starligue three games before the end of the championship, as well as the Coupe de la Ligue. Despite a defeat in the quarterfinals of the Champions League, the club of the French capital achieved a record season: 26 points combined in group stage, a new record since the introduction of the new competition system.

During the 2020-2021 season, the Parisian coach won the Coupe de France before leading his team to a seventh consecutive Lidl Starligue title, a record in the history of the competition. The team finished on the third step of the podium at the Final 4 of the EHF Champions League.

STADE PIERRE-DE-COUBERTIN

The Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin was inaugurated in 1937 as part of the World Exhibition. Following the damage caused by the Second World War, it was rebuilt in 1946. The major renovation of this historic stadium is from 1990.

Paris Saint-Germain Handball is the resident club. The Club did some work to personalize the stadium, including the creation of a weight room, a medical room or the installation of Rouge et Bleu colored seats, similar to the Parc des Princes.

Some additional work was carried out during the Summer 2016 to allow Paris Saint-Germain Handball to host Champions League matches. Since the 2016-2017 season, all home games are held at Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin. During handball matches, the capacity is 3,500 spectators.

Paris Saint-Germain realized a 46-game winning streak in Lidl Starligue in Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin from the 08/06/2017 to the 25/04/2021) and also broke a record for a French team with 56 straight games without a loss in Coubertin, all competitions included (55 wins and 1 draw against Kiel on March 2018) between June 8th 2017 and December 1st 2019. And in Champions League, the team stayed unbeaten at home during more than 5 years, between November 2014 and December 2019. Paris lost only three times since games are played in Coubertin (50 games, 44 wins, 3 draws and 3 losses).

Beyond gamedays, the Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin is where daily practices of the professional team and club youth system take place.

GAME NOTES

PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN HANDBALL

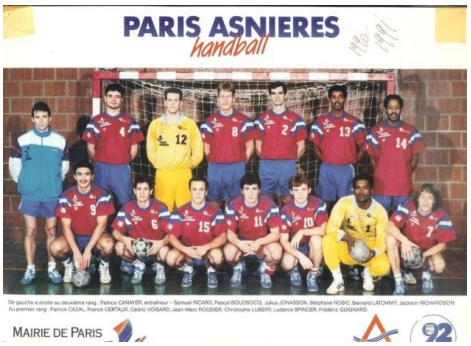

HISTORY

1941: The club was born in 1941 under the leadership of Christian Picard. At the beginning, the club's name was Patriots of Asnieres before taking the name of Asnieres Sports few years later.

1945: At the Parc des Princes, in front of 15 000 spectators, the team played its first Coupe de France final but lost against Villemomble. At this time, handball was still played with 11 players.

1987: The city of Paris agreed with the city of Asnieres to create a big handball club in the French capital. The team moved in Paris and took a new name: Paris-Racing-Asnières before changing once again for Paris-Asnières.

1989: Paris attracted one of the best player of handball, Jackson Richardson. He wore the parisian jersey between 1989 and 1991. At this period, another future World Champion, Patrick Cazal, signed his first professional contract with the club.

1991/1992: The Paris Saint-Germain Omnisports, owned by Charles Biétry, has took control of the club called PSG-Asnières. Others sports section like volley-ball, rugby or boxing are launched by the Paris Saint-Germain.

1995/1996: Led by the 1995 World Champion and Olympic Games medalist Stéphane Stoecklin, the team finished 2nd of the French championship behind the OM-Vitrolles.

2000/2001: The Rouge & Bleu and Olivier Girault, winner of the World Cup few months before, lost against the Montpellier Handball during their first participation to the Coupe de France final.

2001/2002: A new chapter has been opened with Louis Nicollin, who stayed owner of the club until 2010.

2004/2005: Coached by Thierry Anti, the Rouge et Bleu ended the season at the 2nd place of the French championship and qualified for the 2005-2006 Champions League, where they lost in the round of 16.

2006/2007: The club earned his first trophy by winning against Aix-en-Provence in the Coupe de France final.

2009/2010: Down in 2nd division after the previous season, the team won the championship and moved back to 1st division.

GAME NOTES

PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN HANDBALL

2011/2012: Qatar Sports Investments became the new owner of the club, which is named Paris Saint-Germain Handball. Under the impulse of Nasser Al-Khelaïfi, a new team is put in place.

2012/2013: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball, coached by the World Champion Philippe Gardent, won the French championship for the first time of its history. Some international stars were part of the team like Luc Abalo, Samuel Honrubia, Mikkel Hansen or Didier Dinart, which ended his career on this trophy.

2013/2014: With Daniel Narcisse, who joined the club at the beginning of the season, Paris reached the quarter-finals of the Champions League for the first time and won against Chambery in the final of the Coupe de France.

2014/2015: The Parisians fought until the last game with Montpellier to win their second French championship title. Stronger with the arrival of Thierry Omeyer, the Paris Saint-Germain Handball realized an historic triple crown after winning the Trophée des Champions and the Coupe de France.

2015/2016: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball, which host a new coach, Zvonimir Serdarušić, and the Karabatic brothers at the summer 2015, won one more time the Trophée des Champions and in Lidl Starligue. The team participated for the first time to the Final Four of the Champions League, proving the rise in power of the club at the European level.

2016/2017: Another triple crown with a third Trophée des Champions, a third consecutive Lidl Starligue and a first win in Coupe de la Ligue. The Ligue des Champions ended by a crual loss at the last second of the game in Final, against Skopje.

2017/2018: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball won for the first time Lidl Starligue - Coupe de France - Coupe de la Ligue. The Lidl Starligue title has been reached on the last week, which was also Daniel Narcisse last game, a true legend of French handball. In Champions league, Paris confirmed its power and qualified for Final4, where they ended at the third place.

2018/2019: Paris became national champion three games before the end of the Lidl Starligue. Eliminated in quarterfinals of Coupe de France against Montpellier, the Paris Saint-Germain Handball won one week after in Coupe de la Ligue for the third consecutive time. After breaking the record of points in Champions' League group phase, the Rouge & Bleu lost in quarterfinals against Kielce despite an incredible performance at the second leg in Coubertin. The end of season is marked by the retirement of the one of the best French handball player and best goalkeeper ever, Thierry Omeyer.

2019/2020: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball won the Trophée des Champions against Montpellier. During the match, Vincent Gérard, new Parisian player and former player of the Montpellier Handball, is named MVP with 17 stops. Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Rouge & Bleu are crowned champions of Lidl Starligue in April after 18 matches.

2020/2021: Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the LNH decides to cancel the Champions Trophy and the League Cup. The Rouge & Bleu achieved a historic start to the season by winning the first 22 days of Lidl Starligue. With 27 wins in 29 games, Paris won the French champion, a few weeks after winning the fifth Coupe de France in its history against Montpellier (26-30).

2021/2022 : Paris Saint-Germain realised the perfect season in Liqui Moly Starligue with 30 wins in 30 games. A performance never made in the five major team sports in France. Raul Gonzalez's men won, in June 2022, the third French cup of the club.
