FC PORTO HANDBALL vs PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN HANDBALL

WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 7th 2022 – 20:45 – PAVILHAO DRAGAO ARENA – PORTO

EHF CHAMPIONS LEAGUE – WEEK 8 – BROADCAST : EUROSPORT 2

PARIS TAKES THE LEAD

Thanks to their victory in Denmark against Gudme OG (40-35), Paris Saint-Germain Handball has taken the lead of the group A. At the same time, Veszprém lost in Zagreb (26-29). Paris has now 14 points versus 13 for the Hungarians. It's also a duel of extremes tonight between the leader of group A and the team that occupied the last position, Porto (1 point).

FIRST POINT

During the Week 8 of the EHF Champions League, FC Porto finally unlocked their first point in the competition. With their draw against the Germans of Magdeburg (31-31), the Dragons collected one point, their first of the season. An end to seven consecutive losses.

GOOD MEMORIES IN PORTO

The Parisians have good memories of the Pavilhao Dragao Arena. Already in the same group last season in the EHF Champions League, the two teams met in this arena on November 25th, 2021. For a Parisian victory (30-39) built on an impressive first half where Luka Karabatic's teammates already led by eight goals (23-15).

KEEPERS, NOT THE STRENGTH

FC Porto don't have a very efficient goalkeeping duo this season in the European tournament. The Portuguese team's goalkeeping pair is ranked 16th and last in this statistical rank in the group stage of the competition. The pair have a save rate of only 22.09% (72 saves on 326 shots). Paris is 8th with a 26.19% success rate.

KAMIL THE NUMER ONE

Paris' line player Kamil Syprzak is now the competition's top scorer after his offensive performance against the Danes of Gudme last week with 10 goals. The Rouge & Bleu number 21 has now scored 57 goals (76%).

5 X 5

In the last Champions League win in GOG, the Parisian goals were distributed. Five players from the French capital scored five or more goals in the game. Nikola Karabatic and Luc Steins, 5 goals, Elohim Prandi 6 goals, Dainis Kristopans 7 goals and finally Kamil Syprzak 10 goals.

WITH GAUTIER AND LÉO

Adama Keita (thigh) and Dominik Mathé (recovery) are the two absents in Porto. They are numerically replaced by two youngs from the training center : Léo Plantin (left wing) and Gautier Loredon (line player).

Luc Steins joins Paris at the end of November 2020 as a medical joker, following the injury of Nikola Karabatic. He made his professional first steps at the age of 17 with Limburg Lions, winning two Dutch Championship and Cup doubles in 2015 and 2016, before moving to Massy. Named best player of the Prologue in 2016-2017, Steins then signed for Tremblay-en-France, where he played for two seasons before moving to Toulouse in the summer of 2019. He was named MVP and best center-back in the Lidl Starligue in the 2020-2021 season. In two seasons in the French capital, he achieved a "back-to-back" by being named MVP and best center-half of the 2020-2021 and 2021-2022 French championships.

He then moved to France and signed for Fenix Toulouse Handball. Solé played a decisive role in Spain's victory in the 2018 European championship and was voted best right-winger in the competition. He received the same distinction one year later, at the 2019 world championship. In January 2020, he triumphed again with La Roja in the Euro final in Stockholm. This season, he will share the right wing position with another Spanish, the new Parisian, David Balaguer.

Luka Karabatic played tennis at a high level during his teenage years. He chose handball at the age of 19, when he joined the Montpellier youth academy before turning pro and winning 14 titles with the MHB. After three seasons in Aix, he moved to Paris at the same time as his brother Nikola, in the summer of 2015. Twice named best defender in the Champions League, the new Paris captain added 11 trophies to his list of honours with the club from the capital. With France, he was European champion in 2014, world champion in 2015 and 2017 and Olympic champion in 2021. Luka Karabatic is Paris' captain since four seasons.

COACH

Raul GONZALEZ

Head coach

Raul Gonzalez was born in 1970, in Spain in the city of Valladolid. He spent his entire professional career at BM Valladolid as center-back during 18 seasons (1987 to 2005). In 1996, at the Olympic Games in Atlanta, he won the bronze medal against France. He won two silver medals at the European Championships in 1996 and 1998.

He reconverted very quickly and became assistant coach of BM Ciudad Real in 2005. In 2014, he signs as head coach of RK Vardar Skopje, a position he held until 2018. With this club, he won three championships, four Macedonian cups and two SEHA leagues. Raul Gonzalez made a splash in 2017 by winning the Champions League against Paris. In 2018, he started a new challenge and became the coach of Paris-Saint-Germain where he met Luc Abalo, a player with whom he worked from 2008 to 2012 at BM Ciudad Real.

Raul Gonzalez arrived in the city of light with a reputation as a talented and experienced coach. In his first year with Paris Saint-Germain, he won the Lidl Starligue three games before the end of the championship, as well as the Coupe de la Ligue. Despite a defeat in the quarterfinals of the Champions League, the club of the French capital achieved a record season: 26 points combined in group stage, a new record since the introduction of the new competition system.

During the 2020-2021 season, the Parisian coach won the Coupe de France before leading his team to a seventh consecutive Lidl Starligue title, a record in the history of the competition. The team finished on the third step of the podium at the Final 4 of the EHF Champions League.

STADE PIERRE-DE-COUBERTIN

The Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin was inaugurated in 1937 as part of the World Exhibition. Following the damage caused by the Second World War, it was rebuilt in 1946. The major renovation of this historic stadium is from 1990.

Paris Saint-Germain Handball is the resident club. The Club did some work to personalize the stadium, including the creation of a weight room, a medical room or the installation of Rouge et Bleu colored seats, similar to the Parc des Princes.

Some additional work was carried out during the Summer 2016 to allow Paris Saint-Germain Handball to host Champions League matches. Since the 2016-2017 season, all home games are held at Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin. During handball matches, the capacity is 3,500 spectators.

Paris Saint-Germain realized a 46-game winning streak in Lidl Starligue in Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin from the 08/06/2017 to the 25/04/2021) and also broke a record for a French team with 56 straight games without a loss in Coubertin, all competitions included (55 wins and 1 draw against Kiel on March 2018) between June 8th 2017 and December 1st 2019. And in Champions League, the team stayed unbeaten at home during more than 5 years, between November 2014 and December 2019. Paris lost only three times since games are played in Coubertin (53 games, 47 wins, 3 draws and 3 losses).

Beyond gamedays, the Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin is where daily practices of the professional team and club youth system take place.

GAME NOTES

PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN HANDBALL

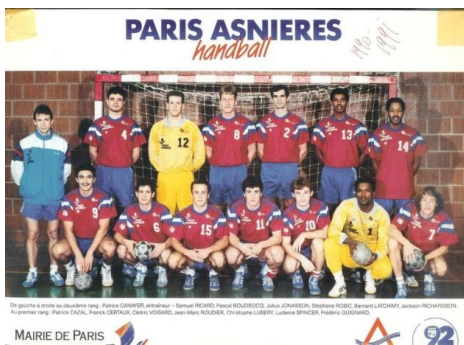

HISTORY

1941: The club was born in 1941 under the leadership of Christian Picard. At the beginning, the club's name was Patriots of Asnières before taking the name of Asnières Sports few years later.

1945: At the Parc des Princes, in front of 15 000 spectators, the team played its first Coupe de France final but lost against Villemomble. At this time, handball was still played with 11 players.

1987: The city of Paris agreed with the city of Asnières to create a big handball club in the French capital. The team moved in Paris and took a new name: Paris-Racing-Asnières before changing once again for Paris-Asnières.

1989: Paris attracted one of the best player of handball, Jackson Richardson. He wore the parisian jersey between 1989 and 1991. At this period, another future World Champion, Patrick Cazal, signed his first professional contract with the club.

1991/1992: The Paris Saint-Germain Omnisports, owned by Charles Biétry, has taken control of the club called PSG-Asnières. Other sports sections like volleyball, rugby or boxing are launched by the Paris Saint-Germain.

1995/1996: Led by the 1995 World Champion and Olympic Games medalist Stéphane Stoecklin, the team finished 2nd of the French championship behind the OM-Vitrolles.

2000/2001: The Rouge & Bleu and Olivier Girault, winner of the World Cup a few months before, lost against the Montpellier Handball during their first participation to the Coupe de France final.

2001/2002: A new chapter has been opened with Louis Nicollin, who stayed owner of the club until 2010.

2004/2005: Coached by Thierry Anti, the Rouge et Bleu ended the season at the 2nd place of the French championship and qualified for the 2005-2006 Champions League, where they lost in the round of 16.

2006/2007: The club earned his first trophy by winning against Aix-en-Provence in the Coupe de France final.

2009/2010: Down in 2nd division after the previous season, the team won the championship and moved back to 1st division.

GAME NOTES

PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN HANDBALL

2011/2012: Qatar Sports Investments became the new owner of the club, which is named Paris Saint-Germain Handball. Under the impulse of Nasser Al-Khelaifi, a new team is put in place.

2012/2013: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball, coached by the World Champion Philippe Gardent, won the French championship for the first time of its history. Some international stars were part of the team like Luc Abalo, Samuel Honrubia, Mikkel Hansen or Didier Dinart, which ended his career on this trophy.

2013/2014: With Daniel Narcisse, who joined the club at the beginning of the season, Paris reached the quarter-finals of the Champions League for the first time and won against Chambéry in the final of the Coupe de France.

2014/2015: The Parisians fought until the last game with Montpellier to win their second French championship title. Stronger with the arrival of Thierry Omeyer, the Paris Saint-Germain Handball realized an historic triple crown after winning the Trophée des Champions and the Coupe de France.

2015/2016: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball, which host a new coach, Zvonimir Serdarušić, and the Karabatic brothers at the summer 2015, won one more time the Trophée des Champions and in Lidl Starligue. The team participated for the first time to the Final Four of the Champions League, proving the rise in power of the club at the European level.

2016/2017: Another triple crown with a third Trophée des Champions, a third consecutive Lidl Starligue and a first win in Coupe de la Ligue. The Ligue des Champions ended by a cruel loss at the last second of the game in Final, against Skopje.

2017/2018: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball won for the first time Lidl Starligue - Coupe de France - Coupe de la Ligue. The Lidl Starligue title has been reached on the last week, which was also Daniel Narcisse last game, a true legend of French handball. In Champions league, Paris confirmed its power and qualified for Final4, where they ended at the third place.

2018/2019: Paris became national champion three games before the end of the Lidl Starligue. Eliminated in quarterfinals of Coupe de France against Montpellier, the Paris Saint-Germain Handball won one week after in Coupe de la Ligue for the third consecutive time. After breaking the record of points in Champions' League group phase, the Rouge & Bleu lost in quarterfinals against Kielce despite an incredible performance at the second leg in Coubertin. The end of season is marked by the retirement of the one of the best French handball player and best goalkeeper ever, Thierry Omeyer.

2019/2020: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball won the Trophée des Champions against Montpellier. During the match, Vincent Gérard, new Parisian player and former player of the Montpellier Handball, is named MVP with 17 stops. Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Rouge & Bleu are crowned champions of Lidl Starligue in April after 18 matches.

2020/2021: Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the LNH decides to cancel the Champions Trophy and the League Cup. The Rouge & Bleu achieved a historic start to the season by winning the first 22 days of Lidl Starligue. With 27 wins in 29 games, Paris won the French champion, a few weeks after winning the fifth Coupe de France in its history against Montpellier (26-30).

2021/2022: Paris Saint-Germain realised the perfect season in Liqui Moly Starligue with 30 wins in 30 games. A performance never made in the five major team sports in France. Raul Gonzalez's men won, in June 2022, the third French cup of the club.
