PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN vs BK HÄCKEN

THURSDAY, MARCH 28th – 9PM – PARC DES PRINCES

UWCL – QUARTER FINAL – 2nd LEG – BROADCAST: DAZN

ROSTER

FOR A 7th LAST SQUARE

Jocelyn Prêcheur's team beat BK Häcken 2-1 in the first leg at the Bravida Arena last week. Paris Saint-Germain can now reach the UEFA Women Champions League semi-finals for the 7th time in their history.

21 GAMES UNBEATEN!

Les Parisiennes remain on a 21-match unbeaten run in all competitions. Their last defeat came more than four months ago. That was on November 23, against Bayern Munich (0-1) in the Champions League group stage.

TABITHA CHAWINGA TAKES THE COUNTERS BY STORM

The Malawian international, who was named best player in D1 Arkema last month, is unstoppable! With 15 goals and 10 assists, Tabitha Chawinga is currently top scorer, ahead of Ada Hegerberg (12 goals) and top passer, ahead of Kadidiatou Diani (9 assists) in D1 Arkema! The Parisian is also UWCL's fastest player this year, with a top speed of 31.2km/h.

WITH 8 TITIS IN MONTPELLIER

8 players from the Paris Saint-Germain training center were on the scoresheet for the capital's 3-1 victory over Montpellier on Sunday evening. Our 8 Titis present: Marie-Antoinette Katoto (starter), Grace Geyoro (starter), Sandy Baltimore (substitute), Jade Le Guilly (starter and striker), Laurina Fazer (starter), Manssita Traore (substitute), Tara Elimni Gilbert (substitute) and Anaïs Ebaylin (substitute).

IN EUROPE'S TOP 3

The combined UEFA points of the men's team (113) and the women's team (80) put Paris Saint-Germain in 3rd place in the UEFA club ranking. With 193 points, the Parisian club is just ahead of FC Bayern Munich (213 points) and FC Barcelona (198 points).

GAME NOTES

JOCELYN PRÊCHEUR

HEAD COACH

Jocelyn Prêcheur began his coaching career as assistant to his father, Gérard Prêcheur. A member of the Olympique Lyonnais staff, he then accompanied him to China to take charge of Jiangsu Women FC from 2017. After one season, Gérard Prêcheur stepped down as head coach, leaving the reins to his son Jocelyn. In three seasons, he won 6 trophies with the Nanjing club.

In 2021-2022, Jocelyn Prêcheur took over at Meizhou Hakka FC, again in China.

In the summer of 2022, he signed for Paris Saint-Germain as assistant coach. In September 2023, Jocelyn Prêcheur was appointed head coach of Les Rouge et Bleu.

KEY PLACES

TRAINING CENTER

Av. du Président John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 78100 Saint-Germain-en-Laye

The Paris Saint-Germain women's team has been based at the training centre in Saint-Germain-en-Laye since the summer of 2023, where they benefit from a top-of-the-range performance complex formerly occupied by the first team. Several pitches and a weight room are available to help them improve their physical condition. The training centre is also the venue for most media meetings throughout the season.
