ANGEL DI MARIA EXTENDS HIS CONTRACT WITH PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN UNTIL 2022

Paris Saint-Germain is delighted to announce that Angel Di Maria has signed a one-year contract extension, with the option of a second year.

Since joining the capital club in August 2015, the 33-year-old has made 248 appearances for the Rouge & Bleu, scoring 87 goals and making 99 assists while playing a key role in the club's success over recent seasons. The left-footed Argentine has notched up 16 trophies so far for the Parisian club: four Ligue 1 titles (2016, 2018, 2019 and 2020), four Coupes de la Ligue (2016, 2017, 2018 and 2020), four Coupes de France (2016, 2017, 2018 and 2020), and four Trophées des Champions (2016, 2018, 2019 and 2020).

The midfielder has the second most assists in the history of Paris Saint-Germain, setting up 99 goals for his teammates just behind Safet Susic's total of 103. "Fideo" is also the eighth highest scorer (87 goals) in the history of the Rouge & Bleu.

The Rosario-born player has also picked up 104 caps and scored 20 goals for "La Albiceleste", the Argentina national team.
