PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN HANDBALL vs PICK SZEGED

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6TH 2024 – 20H45 – STADE PIERRE-DE-COUBERTIN – PARIS

EHF CHAMPIONS LEAGUE – WEEK 14 – BROADCAST: EUROSPORT

FINAL WEEK

Tonight, the Rouge & Bleu face Pick Szeged in the fourteenth and final week of the EHF Champions League group stage. Everything is still to play for the clubs between third and sixth positions.

ADVANTAGE PARIS

Paris Saint-Germain Handball dominated their head-to-head games with their opponents, winning 6 times, losing 3 and drawing 1. The matches have often been close, with only two of them ending by more than a 5-goal margin (including a 10-0 victory for Paris on a green carpet in 2021).

BAD SITUATION

The Hungarian team has not reached the quarterfinals of the competition since 2019. Last season, they lost in the derby against Veszprém.

SHARING IS IMPORTANT

Ten Paris Saint-Germain Handball players scored in the first leg: Syprzak (6), Tonnesen (5), Mathé (4). Steins, Solé and Gréville scored 3 goals, while Keita, Balaguer and Nikola Karabatic scored two. Finally, the captain, Luka Karabatic, scored the 31st goal of the Parisians.

FORMER PARISIAN

In the ranks of Pick Szeged, there is one player who knows the Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin well. Right-back Luka Stepancic wore the colours of the club between 2016 and 2019.

THREAT SOSTARIC

The Hungarian side has the third-highest scorer in European competition: Mario Sostaric. With 78 goals in 13 games, the right winger has two more goals (and one more game) than the line player Kamil Syprzak.

KAMIL UNTIL 2027

Last Friday, Kamil Syprzak extended his contract for two seasons. The line player is now tied to the Club until 30 June 2027. In 202 matches for Paris, the 2.07m player scored 511 goals, including 193 in the Champions League.

GROUP

Yoann Gibelin (recovery), Léo Plantin (rest) and Dominik Mathé (knee) are not in the professional squad for match against Szeged. Wallem Peleka, from the youth system of the club, is on the official match sheet.

STADE PIERRE-DE-COUBERTIN

The Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin was inaugurated in 1937 as part of the World Exhibition. Following the damage caused by the Second World War, it was rebuilt in 1946. The major renovation of this historic stadium is from 1990.

Paris Saint-Germain Handball is the resident club. The Club did some work to personalize the stadium, including the creation of a weight room, a medical room or the installation of Rouge et Bleu colored seats, similar to the Parc des Princes.

Some additional work was carried out during the Summer 2016 to allow Paris Saint-Germain Handball to host Champions League matches. Since the 2016-2017 season, all home games are held at Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin. During handball matches, the capacity is 3,500 spectators.

Paris Saint-Germain realized a 46-game winning streak in Lidl Starligue in Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin from the 08/06/2017 to the 25/04/2021) and also broke a record for a French team with 56 straight games without a loss in Coubertin, all competitions included (55 wins and 1 draw against Kiel on March 2018) between June 8th 2017 and December 1st 2019. And in Champions League, the team stayed unbeaten at home during more than 5 years, between November 2014 and December 2019. Paris lost only four times since games are played in Coubertin (60 games, 52 wins, 4 draws and 4 losses).

Beyond gamedays, the Stade Pierre-de-Coubertin is where daily practices of the professional team and club youth system take place.

PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN HANDBALL

2011/2012: Qatar Sports Investments became the new owner of the club, which is named Paris Saint-Germain Handball. Under the impulse of Nasser Al-Khelaifi, a new team is put in place.

2012/2013: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball, coached by the World Champion Philippe Gardent, won the French championship for the first time of its history. Some international stars were part of the team like Luc Abalo, Samuel Honrubia, Mikkel Hansen or Didier Dinart, which ended his career on this trophy.

2013/2014: With Daniel Narcisse, who joined the club at the beginning of the season, Paris reached the quarter-finals of the Champions League for the first time and won against Chambéry in the final of the Coupe de France.

2014/2015: The Parisians fought until the last game with Montpellier to win their second French championship title. Stronger with the arrival of Thierry Omeyer, the Paris Saint-Germain Handball realized an historic triple crown after winning the Trophée des Champions and the Coupe de France.

2015/2016: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball, which host a new coach, Zvonimir Serdarušić, and the Karabatic brothers at the summer 2015, won one more time the Trophée des Champions and in Lidl Starligue. The team participated for the first time to the Final Four of the Champions League, proving the rise in power of the club at the European level.

2016/2017: Another triple crown with a third Trophée des Champions, a third consecutive Lidl Starligue and a first win in Coupe de la Ligue. The Ligue des Champions ended by a crucial loss at the last second of the game in Final, against Skopje.

2017/2018: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball won for the first time Lidl Starligue - Coupe de France - Coupe de la Ligue. The Lidl Starligue title has been reached on the last week, which was also Daniel Narcisse last game, a true legend of French handball. In Champions league, Paris confirmed its power and qualified for Final4, where they ended at the third place.

2018/2019: Paris became national champion three games before the end of the Lidl Starligue. Eliminated in quarterfinals of Coupe de France against Montpellier, the Paris Saint-Germain Handball won one week after in Coupe de la Ligue for the third consecutive time. After breaking the record of points in Champions' League group phase, the Rouge & Bleu lost in quarterfinals against Kielce despite an incredible performance at the second leg in Coubertin. The end of season is marked by the retirement of the one of the best French handball player and best goalkeeper ever, Thierry Omeyer.

2019/2020: The Paris Saint-Germain Handball won the Trophée des Champions against Montpellier. During the match, Vincent Gérard, new Parisian player and former player of the Montpellier Handball, is named MVP with 17 stops. Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Rouge & Bleu are crowned champions of Lidl Starligue in April after 18 matches.

2020/2021: Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the LNH decides to cancel the Champions Trophy and the League Cup. The Rouge & Bleu achieved a historic start to the season by winning the first 22 days of Lidl Starligue. With 27 wins in 29 games, Paris won the French champion, a few weeks after winning the fifth Coupe de France in its history against Montpellier (26-30).

2021/2022: Paris Saint-Germain realised the perfect season in Liqui Moly Starligue with 30 wins in 30 games. A performance never made in the five major team sports in France. Raul Gonzalez's men won, in June 2022, the third French cup of the club.

2022/2023: Raul Gonzalez players' won their tenth French championship (9 in a row) with 26 wins in 29 games. Luc Steins is crowned MVP for the third year in a row.
